Chloé de Meulenaer

chloedemeulenaer.github.io
email: c.de-meulenaer@lse.ac.uk

London School of Economics
Department of Economics
Ph.D. Candidate

Fields Primary: Public economics Secondary: Political economics, Behavioural economics

References

Camille Landais
LSE
c.landais@lse.ac.uk

Johannes Spinnewijn
LSE
j.spinnewijn@lse.ac.uk

Daniel Reck
University of Maryland
dreck@umd.edu

Education

MRes/PhD in Economics, London School of Economics (LSE) 2020–
Supervisors: Camille Landais, Johannes Spinnewijn

MRes in Economics, Free University of Brussels (ULB), magna cum laude 2016–2018

B.A. Economics, Free University of Brussels (ULB), magna cum laude 2013–2016

B.A. Political Science, Free University of Brussels (ULB), magna cum laude 2013–2016

Job market paper

What do reforms do? A unified analysis of support for economic policies

Working papers

Equity or externalities: The redistributive debates in Norway and the United States with Morten Nyborg Støstad and Max Lobeck

Attitudes towards the inheritance tax and demand for redistribution

Work in progress

Peer effects and insurance choice quality
with Johannes Spinnewijn, Ben Handel and Jon Kolstad

The income gradient of life expectancy: Belgium
Part of a large international project led by Maria Polyakova

Presentations

III Smoothie seminar (London), LSE Work in progress seminar (London), EEA annual conference (Dublin), IIPF annual congress (Lisbon) 2026

NHH seminar (Bergen), LSE Work in progress seminar (London), PSE Lunch seminar (Paris) 2025

PSE Lunch seminar (Paris), LSE Work in progress seminar (London), IIPF Annual Congress (Prague) 2024

LSE Work in progress seminar (London), MannheimTax (Mannheim), National Tax Association Annual Conference (Denver) 2023

Refereeing Journal of Public Economics; Economica

Grants and awards	Programme for Cohesive Capitalism grant (GBP 5,000)	2025
	Cepremap grant (EUR 5,000)	2025
	Morishima fund travel grant (GBP 700)	2025
	Class Teacher Award — Highly Commended	2022
	Economic and Social Research Council Doctoral Studentship	2020–2025
	Finalist, "My master's thesis in 180 seconds"	2019
	Kirschen prize, awarded yearly to an innovative and topical thesis in Economics (EUR 1,250)	2018
Teaching	Public Economics, LSE Lecturers: Camille Landais, Kate Smith	2024–2026
	Macroeconomics I, LSE Lecturer: Junius Olivier	2025–2026
	Microeconomics I, LSE Lecturer: Ronny Razin	2021–2026
	Microeconomics I, LSE Lecturer: Dimitra Petropoulou	2021–2023
	Microeconomics I, ULB Lecturers: Julien Ravet, Renaud Foucart	2016–2018
	Mathematics I (MATHS101), ULB Lecturer: Marjorie Gassner	2015–2018
	Macroeconomics I (ECONS102), ULB Lecturer: Pierre-Guillaume Méon	2015–2018
Work experience	LSE, pre-doctoral research assistant, Johannes Spinnewijn	2019–2020
	Bruegel, Intern	2018–2019
Other	Citizenship: Belgian
	Languages: French (native), English (fluent), Italian (fluent)	